

Environmental Management System Policy

People and Technology for a Green World

- People – the company is committed to providing and developing adequate training and motivation for its employees, with the aim of protecting the environment and complying with legislative regulations.
- Technologies – the company is committed to providing adequate resources and applying appropriate technologies to minimize negative environmental impacts.
- Improvement – the company is committed to continuously improving its processes and the use of available resources.
- Green World – our Goal and our motivation to work and influence the World both externally and internally and to subordinate our activities to ecology.

28. April 2023

Ing. Ondřej Holík
General manager